The Cupcake Love-In

Tracy Dempsey, owner of Scottsdale's Tracy Dempsey Originals, and Kelly Garcia, proprietor of Scottsdale's Butter & Me Cupcakery, are coordinating this inaugural cupcake fest. Dozens of pastry chefs, including representatives from Bloom, Tammie Coe Cakes and Gluten Free Creations, will prepare sweet mini-treats. There is also a cupcake-decorating station for kids, cupcake-eating competition, decorated-cupcake competition and fundraising raffle. And since that Monday is Columbus Day, guests will have a full day to recover from that sugar-induced coma. Proceeds benefit Singleton MOMS and Safe Haven for Animals. 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 10. $10, free for age 5 and younger. Raffle tickets are $1. Hotel Valley Ho, 6850 E. Main St., Scottsdale. 480-363-2859, cupcakelovein.com.

Dia de los Muertos

Commemorating Mexico's Day of the Dead tradition, which honors deceased loved ones, this fourth annual festival captures the day's celebratory spirit. There's a market showcasing Day of the Dead-themed merchandise and locally made ethnic artwork. There's also an altar featuring hand-crafted shrines. For some traditional Sonoran-style food, head over to Los Dos Molinos (260 S. Alma School Road, Mesa, 480-969-7475) and try the spicy green-chile beef burro or the signature adovada ribs in red-chile sauce. 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 30; noon-5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 31. Free. Mesa Arts Center, 1 E. Main St. 480-644-6500, mesaartscenter.com.
